Many Attend 1st DCYM Youth Revival in July

The Durham County Citywide Youth Revival was held at Mt. Level Missionary Baptist Church on July 11th and 12th. Both nights brought worshipers young and old together from a number of churches throughout Durham County. On the first day we had singing by Heritage of Praise Youth Fellowship and the Henderson Grove Praise Team. Omari Scott provided an unforgettable mime. Our Speaker for Monday night, Minister Cheantell Lewis from Mt. Level, was great. She told us not to use “son” block. I believe that her message touched the hearts of many youth. The praise continued on the second night. The New St. James Baptist Church choir was spirited and joyous. Rev. Yvette Crawford from Northeast Baptist Church served as the guest speaker. Rev. Crawford encouraged us to go out and start a youth movement called BLJ (“Be Like Jesus”) and not to be afraid about what others might think. Her message was inspiring and gave us all something to think about and act on each day.

On Saturday, July 9, 2011 the 6th Annual Youth Banquet was held at Morning Star Missionary Baptist Church. During this banquet we had dancing by youth from West Durham Baptist Church. In addition we had singing by Jameca Cotton from Lincoln Memorial Baptist Church. The Honorable Marcia Morey, chief judge of the North Carolina District Court spoke about the youth that she has encountered throughout her career and why they typically end up in her court or in jail. She said that a lot of youth get into trouble because they are seeking the love that they often don't get from their immediate families.

I really thought her message was interesting and might help keep youth out of trouble. Also, the food was good and the gift bags were great. If you didn't attend, you missed out. I hope you will join us next year.
